<sup>1</sup> A "yes" response will not result in an automatic rejection of your application. We ask this because in Illinois, no one who has been convicted of an "excluded offense" may become an employee of a cultivation center or dispensary. An "excluded offense" is defined as:

(1) a violent crime defined in Section 3 of the Rights of Crime Victims and Witnesses Act or a substantially similar offense that was classified as a felony in the jurisdiction where the person was convicted; or
(2) a violation of a state or federal controlled substance law that was classified as a felony in the jurisdiction where the person was convicted, except that the IDFPR may waive this restriction if the person demonstrates to the registering Department's satisfaction that his or her conviction was for the possession, cultivation, transfer, or delivery of a reasonable amount of cannabis intended for medical use. This exception does not apply if the conviction was under state law and involved a violation of an existing medical cannabis law.
